with Betty Allen...

Ace Robbins, Winchester Road garageman, went fishing with Mrs. Robbins last Sunday in their speedboat off Capitola, they tell me. The engine developed an ailment so Ace pulled it to pieces on the high seas. Just as he was ready to reassemble it, Mrs. Robbins got a fish (why will women do these things at the wrong moment?) and in the excitement of pulling it in, the assembled parts were knocked to the bottom of the boat. When the fish, almost as long as the boat, was finally killed and quit kicking, Ace began to reassemble the engine . . . he found everything but a small gasket and that he cut from the lunch basket.

Quite a spontaneous ovation of horn honking at the tennis courts the other evening . . . and didn't Carl Field do an authoritative job of announcing the score? Added a lot to the occasion.

Just learned that Carol Howatt of the Blue Jay received a national award while attending high school in Bakersfield for the best headline writing for high school papers not only in this country, but in Alaska and Hawaii, also.

What might have been a catastrophe was avoided by quick action in Horace's Grocery one afternoon last week. It was just before the dinner hour and the small store was crowded with customers when Horace noticed a wisp of smoke coming from a carton. A bystander grabbed it and carried it outside where it proved to be a carton of large matches (the kitchen kind) and in some mysterous way some of the matches had started to burn.

Lawrence J. Campodonico, active in the operation of Drew Canning Co. since 1931 has been made assistant general sales manager for Hunt Foods Inc.

Campbell people are being given a chance to build a constructive year-round recreational program for young people by contributing either individually or through their respective organizations to the Youth Council. Figures given in today's news item show the popularity of the project . . . in addition to the high school age young people, the average daily attendance of the children present at the summer playground is between 35 and 40.

After drooling over accounts of other people's vacations all summer, I am off to the beach with my daughter next week. Several readers have promised to contribute some tidbits for the column next week, so it should certainly have variety.

Barn Burns

A large crowd witnessed the fire last Saturday evening which demolished a barn belonging to S. Cardinelli on Budd Ave. The barn, being used temporarily as living quarters, was located deep in an orchard behind the foundation of a new house.

Members of the family were awakened by the barking of their dog and were able to save some of their furniture, but all of their clothing and personal effects were lost.

Since the scene of the fire was out of the Campbell district, Campbell firemen did not respond to the call.

YOUTH COUNCIL EXECUTIVE BOARD TO MEET

The executive board of the Youth Council will meet next Monday night, Aug. 26, in the Scout building, at 8 p. m.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

Mrs. Mark Purmort Claimed by Death

The community was saddened Monday by the death of Mrs. Mark Purmort, who died in a San Jose hospital after an illness of several months. Mrs. Purmort, a native of Ohio, was, with her husband, an early resident of Campbell and has taken an active part in community affairs.

Mrs. Purmort went to Minnesota in 1884 and later attended Ann Arbor College. At one time she was in the Civil Service and taught an Indian school in North Dakota.

In 1903 she married Mark Purmort in Minnesota and the couple lived in St. Paul and Minneapolis for five years before coming to California in July of 1908. They lived for three months in Campbell before moving into the present family home on S. Winchester.

Mrs. Purmort was a past president of the Pundita Circle, the Country Woman's Club, and the Campbell Grammar School PTA, and was also a member of the Orchard City Grange. In addition her activities included a term on the school board and substituting on the rural mail route.

Mrs. Purmort enjoyed traveling and before the war she and her husband made many long trips, and, among other places, visited the National Parks of the West. She also accompanied Mr. Purmort to many Kiwanis State conventions and meetings.

One of Mrs. Purmort's hobbies was the family round-robin letters which she started 20 years ago and which are still continuing. Next to the oldest of 10 brothers and sisters, Mrs. Purmort's efforts kept the family closely in touch, and at one time the round-robin letters circled the world for there were members of the family in Russia, Mexico and the Philippine Islands, as well as various parts of this country.

Final rites were held yesterday at 2 p. m. at the Rutherford Funeral Home on Winchester Road. Interment was private.

Pall bearers for the funeral were Guy Farley, Herbert Shadle, E. K. Kennedy, M. E. Mumma, Louis Carboni and Ben Strong.

Mrs. Purmort leaves, in addition to her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Marie Medlock Marr of San Jose; a granddaughter, Barbara Clare Medlock of San Jose; a niece, Mrs. Lee Gillis Driedger of Whiteson, Oregon; and three brothers and two sisters.

Campbell Boy Full Fledged Parachutist

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wood have just received word that their son, Pfc. Newton J. Wood, has graduated as a qualified parachutist in the 11th Airborne Division. The news was a surprise to the Woods who did not know their son was contemplating the accomplishment.

In order to successfully fill the requirements the candidate must jump five times from a plane at a height of 1200 feet with the plane traveling at a speed of 110 miles per hour.

The youthful parachutist is stationed with the Occupation Troops in Yamagata, Japan, having sailed from this country July 3.

Another son of the Woods, Harvey Wood, who was recently released from the Army, has accepted a new position as assistant branch manager of a post exchange for the occupation troops in Germany.

DR. LONG TO EXPAND PRACTICE

Dr. Gabe C. Long will open an office in the Physicians and Surgeons Building in San Jose for the practice of surgery and surgical diagnosis in addition to his office in Campbell. Dr. Long will continue his practice in Campbell much as he has in the past, with visits here by appointment only.

Production Record Set at Hunt's

A production record was set at Hunt Foods Inc. last Saturday when the largest pack for one day in the history of the company was turned out. Included in the pack were peaches, fruit salad, fruit cocktail and pears.

Personnel officials of the company report that the contest for additional workers now being conducted has resulted in a large number of new workers, but that more men and women will be needed to fill the places soon to be vacated by students who desire a week or two of vacation before starting school.

A bus for the night shift workers is now operating between Campbell and Los Gatos.

Next Thursday, Aug. 29, from 6 a. m. to 10 a. m., and from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m., is the time set for Hunt workers to vote in the cannery election which will determine whether the cannery employees will be represented for purposes of collective bargaining by the A. F. of L. or the C. I. O.

All production and maintenance employees of the plants which are members of the California Processors & Growers, Inc., will be eligible to vote in the election, including non-deputized watchmen, cafeteria employees and floor ladies who do not possess supervisory authority. Those not eligible to vote are office and clerical employees and all supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees or effectively recommend such action.

Eligibilty to vote in the election will also be governed by a requirement that all of the above described employees must have been in an actual work status during the pay period ending nearest to Aug. 17, 1946. Thus, employees who are ill, on vacation or who are temporarily laid off during the above pay period will not be eligible to vote. On the other hand, employees who do work during the pay period and who have not been lawfully discharged or who have not resigned on the day of the election, including those ill, on vacation, or temporarily laid off since the pay period ending nearest to Aug. 17, will be eligible to vote.

To Be In Occupation Army

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lucero, he entered the Army last May and was sent to Fort Bliss, Texas, an anti-aircraft replacement training center. Here he received his basic training and in addition was given special training in the operation of 40 mm. automatic guns.

Lucero expects to be stationed with the Army of Occupation in Japan and may sail this week, according to his family who visited him at camp last Sunday.

Tennis Tournament Progressing

Three championships were determined this week in the first annual night tennis tournament being held at the local courts. Mrs. Helen Powell defeated Mrs. Mary Drummond in an unexpectedly close match, by a score of 7-5, 6-3. The game was a base line duel between the two women, and only the fact that Mrs. Powell possessed a little stronger back-hand than Mrs. Drummond enabled her to emerge as the champ.

The second championship was decided last Sunday evening when the men's doubles team of Harold Drummond and Jack Murdock triumphed over their youthful opponents, Dan Clark and Bob Magnuson, by scores of 6-4 and 7-5. The affair was witnessed by more than a hundred spectators who sat in parked cars and stood on the sidelines. It was announced over a public address system by Carl Field, much to the enjoyment of the fans. The match was rated as a toss-up, but the tournament experience of both Drummond and Murdock offset the speed and condition of Clark and Magnuson.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Powell defeated the team of Mr. and Mrs. Drummond by scores of 6-3, 5-7, and 7-5. The score indicated the closeness of the match in what proved to be a baseline duel again between Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Drummond. Superior team work won the championship for the Powells, although Mrs. Drummond played her best tennis of the entire tournament. The good net play of Mr. Drummond was offset by the fore-hand placement drives of Mrs. Powell, which was the determining factor of the very well played match.

The next championship to be decided is the men's singles, which will be played Sunday evening, Aug. 25. Opponents for this match have not been determined as yet, although one finalist will be George Phillips. He will be opposed by either Ray Fish Jr., Valley League High School champ, or Bob Magnuson. Bob and Ray have a little engagement tomorrow to determine who will have the honor of meeting Mr. Phillips for the crown. The semi-finals match between Fish and Magnuson will be aired over the public address system, and a good crowd is expected to be on hand. No favorite has been picked in this match, and sentiment seems to be about evenly divided, although Ray Fish will probably be installed as a very slight favorite, based on his tournament play to date.

Immediately following the finals match on Sunday, Aug. 25, Dean Close, playground director for the Youth Center, under whose sponsorship the tournament is being run, will make the awards to the various winners. The entire event will again be put over the public address system.

Returns South For Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. LBen Howard who left by car two weeks ago for an Oregon vacation flew to Palo Alto from Portland, Oregon, last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Howard's sister, Orah M. Howard, who died unexpectedly in Palo Alto. The Howards returned by plane to Portland and will drive back to Campbell.

Dr. E. Marvin Stewart of Palo Alto officiated at the services which were conducted by the funeral home of Roller and Hapgood, also of Palo Alto.

WAVE RELEASED

Miss Dorothy Loraine Harnish, SK2c, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robillard, 124 W. Campbell Ave., was released from duty with the US Navy on Aug. 13 at the US Naval Barracks in Washington, D. C.

Campbell Man Safe in Cuba

Word has been received by Mrs. John P. Flatkin from Richard S. Rheem, owner of the missing yacht on which her husband was serving as chef, that the yacht had reached port in Cuba and all members of the crew were safe.

As reported in last week's Press, the yacht Morning Star, had been missing since Aug. 7, the day following its departure from Brooklyn, N. Y., for Panama. Aerial searches had been made by members of the Coast Guard in the vicinity the ship was last heard from by radio, but no trace could be found of the mystery ship.

Crew members told a tale of hardship on their arrival in Cuba —they had run into a hurricane which had put out of commission both their motors and radio. The 98-foot yacht had been blown 1000 miles off its course!

Rheem, owner of the yacht, whose home is in Arcadia, has told Mrs. Flatkin that the ship will proceed to Panama, its original destination, as soon as repairs are completed and that she may expect her husband to arrive in San Francisco within six weeks.

Flatkin, who served three years in the Army, has just been released from the Maritime Service. He and his family live at 10 S. Third St.

Los Gatos Preparing for Pageant

Cats, tall and short, wise and humorous, cats from fairy tale and from history, will walk the boards when "The Cats", an original fantasy by Dean Jennigs, will reopen in the Los Gatos Bowl on the evenings of Sept. 13, 14, and 15.

Feline adventures of well-known cats of fantasy, as well as historical cats from the early history of Los Gatos, will appear on the big stage of the outdoor theater. A cast of 150, a chorus of 80 and an orchestra of 35 will appear. Special fluourescent lighting has been arranged by Dr. Gustave Fassen for the three-level stage and the mountain waterfall which tumbles down the center of the tree-grown amphitheater.

Stage direction is by William Van Vleek; music is under the baton of James Lightner and Dean Jennings is general chairman. Sponsors from business and professional groups in the Los Gatos area include Mrs. Kathleen Norris, who will have a role in the pageant; Yehudi Menuhin, screen actresses Olivia de Havilland, Joan Fontaine and Mrs. Lillian Fontaine.

The levels of the vast stage will take actors, singers and dancers in massed choruses and in specialty numbers. The dancing is under the direction of Carol Singer, formerly associated with Michael Fokine and specialist in Russian ballet.

Tickets for the three nights of the pageant are now on sale at the Town Hall in Los Gatos and ticket offices will be opened in other towns in the vicinity. Sept. 13, 14 and 15 is the time; the place is Los Gatos; the pageant is "The Cats"

MISSING HEIRS FOUND

Readers will be interested to know that the W. C. Cox and Co., probate research investigators, who advertised in the classified columns of last week's Press have reported that persons believed to be the missing heirs for which they were advertising have responded.

HAND INJURED

Mrs. Mildred Light, N. Third St., is recuperating at home after the injury she suffered while working at Hunt Foods Inc., when her hand was caught in a pear machine. Although ligaments were cut, it is expected that she will be able to have full use of her hand in a few weeks.

Work Progressing On Incorporation

Petitions bearing the signatures of more than 300 residents desiring incorporation, are being presented to the Board of Supervisors this week by George Arlidge, secretary of the Campbell Taxpayers' Association. According to Arlidge, the number of signers are expected to represent enough of the required assessed valuation to secure the hearings necessary for the placing of the matter on the ballot.

On Monday evening members of the Association, with Ray Gilpatrick, chairman, presiding, met with their guests to discuss the matter and to learn more concerning it from H. J. Major, Mountain View City Attorney. Many new faces were among the larger than usual attendance.

Major, an ethusiastic proponent for incorporation, said that, in his opinion, Campbell has reached the point where incorporation was vitally necessary or the town would stagnate without progress.

He stressed the need of police protection here and stated that although Mountain View had only a slightly higher population than incorporated Campbell would have, its fire protection was three times the amount of Campbell's present protection.

Major said that many people object to incorporation for fear that the city council will raise taxes sky high, but he brought out the point that municipal government is governed by State laws and city councilmen are not allowed to raise taxes over the amount set by law unless the people vote to do so.

Revenues, in addition to taxation, were briefly outlined. They included licenses, franchises, gas tax refunds and alcoholic beverages fees.

Mountain View, according to Major, operated with a pearly profit of $22,000 preceding the war.

EDITORIAL

There are some people who are against incorporation although a large number appear to feel that Campbell has reached the place where self government must be undertaken; and there are some people who do not favor industrial zoning, whereas a large number feel that such a step would be of tremendous good for Campbell; but there does not seem to be a man, woman or child who does not unanimously agree that Campbell needs a bank.

Surely it is not being too optimistic to assume that a bank would result from the two progressive steps contemplated. And we would probably discover that the bank would be only one of the tangible and intangible assets resulting from advancement and growth.

MEN'S WEAR

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON

IT'S SAME CROWD AGAIN

PARIS — It's hot in the galleries of the palace of Luxembourg. In the top gallery sits hundreds of newsmen—Chinese, Siamese, Greek, Indian, New Zealanders, watching a man speak far below. Newsmen from all over the world watching the peace. It's their peace. What's done here will affect their countries from Baluchistan to Iceland, from Saskatchewan to Samoa, and they are watching.

Far below, under the klieg lights, sits Jimmy Byrnes—patient, polite Jimmy Byrnes—never leaving his seat, never failing to listen. . . . A man speaks into the microphone. He's interpreting Moloaov . . . in French. Another man speaks. He's interpreting Molotov in English. . . . It takes hours.

When, you wonder, will diplomacy ever become modernized? Diplomacy hasn't been changed since 1815. . . . The Vienna conference when the great powers divided up Europe and brought on more wars.

Paris today is depressingly the same. We invent modern methods of warfare. . . . Rockets that may reach the moon, atomic bombs that sink navies, germs that can destroy civilization. . . . But the weapons of peace never keep pace with the weapons of war . . . nor do the diplomats who wield the weapons of peace.

The same crowd which failed to head off the last war is here again—even some of the same crowd which sat in at the last Paris peace conference. . . . Look at their faces. Poker faces. No life, no lift, no passion for the peace they are negotiating, bored faces, preoccupied faces, bored with the endless translations. Bored with the whole boredom of diplomacy. Not a man among them who lost an arm or a leg, who knows what it is to suffer on the battlefield. These are the men who are writing the peace.

Jimmy Byrnes is not bored. Polite, patient, precise Jimmy Byrnes sits on the front row—perhaps he is too polite, too patient. . . . You feel like shouting down at Jimmy. You wish you had a telephone to reach him there, way down below. You wish you could tell him:

"That was a great speech you made the other day, Jimmy, but finish it. Tell them the rest of the story. Tell them not only that the United States isn't going to remain isolated but also that we're going to raise hell with onyone who blocks our path to peace. Tell them that millions of Americans are fed up with all this frittering; that millions of Americans mean business and will back you up in anything you do."

Around the senate chamber of the palace of Luxembourg are great, gold ornaments. Woodwork served in ornate shapes, heavily encrusted with gold—remnants of the lush days of the de Medicis. . . . If the French had only been smart. If they had only painted out the gold and substituted white crosses! Then perhaps the bored dilpomats sitting below would remember . . . white crosses . . . from Guadalcanal and Stalingrad, from Salerno and New Guinea, from Tobruk and the Rapido, from Normandy and Aachen. . . . Close your eyes and you can see them. . . . Thousands of white crosses. . . . The dead speak:

"To all your praises we are deaf and blind.

"We may not even know if you betray

"The hopes we cherished for mankind."

But the diplomats below don't seem to hear. . . . Men in red plush seats, fastidious men in red plush seats, their nails polished, their cravats carefully tied. They don't seem to hear. They are thinking about procedure and majority votes, vetoes and prestige and whether they will get out in time to take tea with Mrs. Ogden Mills.

One man does hear. He sits opposite Jimmie Byrnes. . . . A big, uncouth man, his hair not even parted. . . . Evatt of Australia. His cockney accent is uncultured but he dares to speak. He is the only man who comes anywhere near preaching the Sermon on the Mount, who tells the bored men in the red plush seats that they must love their neighbors as themselves. . . . Unpleasantly Evatt steps on the toes of the big nations—tells them they have no business sabotaging the peaceful goal of others. . . . They don't like Evatt, but they listen. Even patient, polite Jimmie Byrnes doesn't like Evatt. But he listens. . . . Thousands of men under white crosses listen, too.

Roost Activities

A total attendance of 1300 from the end of school until Aug. 20 is the record of the Roost. Highest attendance for any one evening was 43 and the lowest three. This makes an average of 24.8 young people per evening with 55 paid members.

The group has had three dances at the Scout Hall, headquarters of their activities. One was a sport dance, one a costume affair, a "come-as-you-are" party. Six swimming parties were arranged for the members during the summer and dancing is available each evening.

Dean Close, director of the recreational work, is enthusiastic over the prospects of a year-round program with the Scout Hall open on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Among the facilities there for recreation are three ping pong tables, a piano, a pool table, a phonograph, checkers, chess and other games and a snack bar. More tables are needed and Close is hoping that some will be donated soon.

Also planned as part of the winter recreational program is a folk dancing class to meet one evening a week, starting Sept. 7 for six weeks. There will also be Saturday evening dances arranged so that they will not conflict with high school dances.

A week from this Saturday, Aug. 31, members of the Roost are planning another sport dance.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

Included within the guesstimate figures in last Thursday's Press, was the statement that the fire chief was taken care of by the fire district. For the benefit of this misinformed individual who so erroneouesly quotes such information to the press, I will endeavor to enlighten the same by or with the following information:

1. The Campbell volunteer fire department is exactly as the name implies.
2. At no time has any of the members, including the chief, been paid any stipulated sum.
3. At times donations are made by property owners who feel they have not lost enough through fire. This money is put in our fund and used for social purposes.
4. We are operating on a $3000 budget, which covers insurance on 25 men, pays hydrant rentals, and other miscellaneous expenses such as maintenance of buildings, the insurance on the same, and upkeep of two fire engines.
5. We as a department do not expect any praise. We like to fight fire, it helps out the underwriters and also the property owners.
6. I for one am for incorporation of Campbell as a city, the boundaries of which still remain controversial.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I have been asked, by the executive board of the Campbell Youth Council, to bring to the Campbell people, through the columns of your paper, a little clearer picture of what the Council is attempting to do. Last year a recreational program was provided by the funds donated for the vacation period. The teenagers called their organization "The Roost" and ended the season with over one hundred paid members. A playground program brought the younger children together under competent management and proved very successful.

This year we have attempted a similar program. Our recreational director, Mr. Dean Close, added another community feature, a very successful tennis tournament. The community, as a whole, has given this phase of the program, good backing. The teenage group has not responded so well, but we are reaching a group that did not come in last year. The director has had more trouble in getting cooperation, but is making good headway. The playground program is handled by Miss Mary Lou Blair and Miss Carol Lantz. These young ladies have done a splendid job and merit your approval.

The Council is handicapped for lack of a proper building and equipment. Such a program costs a good deal of money and labor. We are in great need of both. We feel that the program should go on during the school year for the teenage group. Perhaps two or three nights a week. Nights that will not conflict with school activities. What is needed is definite cooperation of all organizations that are interested in child welfare. Cities can budget an expense of this kind, but we must carry on through individual effort. We must be willing to sacrifice and work together. At least 17 organizations are represented on the Council. These representatives should "carry the message to Garcia" and get the complete support of these different groups.

A program of this kind costs money. Are you willing to support it? Mr. LBen Howard is secretary and Mrs. H. F. Cousins is treasurer, pro tem. We would like to have some one volunteer to relieve Mrs. Cousins, who has plenty to do now. Mr. Charles Jones carried on for two years and did an excellent job. He was forced to resign because of heavy personal obligations.

This is a community responsibility. Are we willing to say that a recreational program of this kind is not worth the effort? Can we balance the welfare of the boys and girls against money or personal effort? Let us think these things over and respond as I know our hearts will direct.

Sincerely,
HERBERT M. SHADLE,
Youth Council Chairman.

Dear Editor:

The Press has my thanks for publishing the State Bar committee's plan for a unified County Court to displace all community lower courts of every kind. Your readers should know what it means. It may be voted on.

Obviously, it means a judicial monopoly for the attorney type of mind. Quote: "4. That the judges must have been admitted to practice law for at least five years." Consider the opposite: "That no judge shall have been admitted to the practice of law." would the last be fair? If not, the first wouldn't be fair either.

For centuries non-professional folk have made good magistrates for the people's lower courts. In England this honor was formerly limited to the landed gentry. But today, according to Britannica, "both sexes and all classes of the community are represented on the magisterial bench irrespective of social status or political bias."

Shall we be less democratic in California?

The State Bar committee tries to heap scorn on the Justices of the Peace for their low pay. But in England the J. P. usually receives no pay at all. The honor of being a J. P. is supposed to be reward enough. The Bar committee speaks of judicial salaries large enough to attract the best legal talent on a full time basis. Nonsense. The salary of even a Superior Judge is hardly pin money for the best legal talent. A large part of the reward here is honor also, and every intelligent attorney knows it.

The best legal talent could not possibly be attracted to a judicial bench without the reward of honor. And not to understand the importance of this reward is not to understand courts of any kind.

The truth is that the County Court plan is a scheme for awarding all magisterial honor to attorneys. This fact more and more appears as we study the plan in detail. In principle the J. P. is not eliminated. In his stead appears a "commissioner", a local officer who would do must of the local court work. In principle the commissioner would be a J. P. demoted, shorn of his honor. Naturally he would demand more pay, more than the county could well afford. So the Bar committee suggests that he be paid by the State.

The new high salaried judges of the lower court are also to be paid by the State. Where would all this State money come from? The Bar committee says nothing about Santa Claus, but perhaps unconsciously it has him in mind. Probably Santa Claus would recommend a higher sales tax. The money would have to be raised somehow and come somehow from us.

There is another angle. If welfare workers of every kind are to be given "adequate" salaries the tendency will be to load them up with detailed work. The creative, or higher, side of their roles will consequently be more and more crowded out. They will be like ministers who have little time for anything except running the machinery of their churches. And this sort of thing absolutely cannot succeed.

Somebody must be above pay—partly, at least. In England the J. P. is a "common" person or an uncommon person, as the case may be, completely above pay, as a school trustee is here. And for centuries this system has been remarkably well thought of because remarkably successful. As things stand now the California J. P. is partly above pay. I suggest that we leave him so, with honor intact.

JOHN D. BLAINE,
Campbell Justice.

Roselane glazed pottery, handmade in Pasadena, is being featured this week at The House of Riches. A particularly good glaze is to be found on this pottery which comes in gray and chartreuse. Large round vases, bud vases, oblong vases with high sides, large tall vases, and round vases with scalloped edges are some of the types on display. Interesting figureens which may be used as centerpieces in the low vases are fawns in different poses, herons, and egretts. Double and single candle holders and leaf-shaped candy dishes are also made in Roselane pottery.

Girls, you must stop in at Rachel's and see the new back-to-school cotton dresses. They are fashioned by Lil' Alice and are just super for those first warm weeks of school. There are several styles and colors from which you may choose. A yellow with small flowers, low neck line, full sleeves, and gathered skirt; a red and white striped made of cotton material seldom seen these days; and a dress of small blue and white squares are particularly smart looking.

Whether you're building or fixing over your old bathroom you should see the Mother of Pearl toilet seats at Garcia's. These seats come in pink, gren, black, and yellow, and would improve the appearance of any bathroom. Also at Garcia's are some all metal medicine cabinets with adjustable cabinet shelves and excellent mirrors!

The What Not has something new and elegant to show you—colored glass bottles in amethyst and amber, glass vases in a variety of colors, and amethyst and green water pitchers. The bottles are attractive as ornaments, or they may be used as decanters or as candle holders. The bottles are not all come in the usual bottle shape, but some are in the form of small cabins. A magic colored candle in one of these is quite effective. The round blue glass vases with fluted edges and the red bowl-shaped twin vases would make lovely gifts. An extra pitcher can always be used; these glass ones are very attractive.

Nothing is better to eat than good old fashioned baked beans cooked in heavy pottery. The Campbell Hardware has baking sets with six individual pots and a large pot. These are of extra heavy pottery with both inside and outside glaze. If you've forgotten how good baked beans can be try preparing them in one of these sets.

If you're looking for a snappy suit for junior you may find some new cottons at The Dresser Drawer. A new supply of T shirts and cotton coat sweatters are also on hand. These outfits come in sizes 1—3 and colors of canary, baby blue, aqua and white.

Without beautiful well-kept hair you can't be glamorous. If your hair has that tired look what it needs is brushing with a Prophylactic Jewelite hair brush to be found at the Campbell Pharmacy. Made of crystal clear plastic these brushes are easily washed in warm water. The Roll-Wave brush is sure to prove satisfactory; however there are several types from which you may choose.

Something new in bubble bath for the children may be seen at Clark's. Sets with a different nursery rhyme on each package and sets with animals straight from the zoo are two of the types. Special liquid bubble bath in bottles specially designed for children may also be seen.

Boys, don't let the girls get ahead of you! Benson's have some mighty smart looking sweaters for school. They are all wool and come in several different styles—slip-overs without sleeves, slip-overs with long sleeves, and coat sweaters. You have a large variety of colors to choose from. Some of these are deep red, light or dark blue, camel, and maze.

Rare Collection Here

A collection which will bring antique lovers from all over California is being displayed now at the Tiny Shop in the Garden on Winchester Road. Many of the fabulous pieces have been collected from all parts of Europe and as well as from this country.

Included in the array are furniture, rugs, dishes, glassware, bricabrac and paintings.

One of the most delightful and rewarding aspects of the large collection is the extent of its variety. For the lover of the ornate there are delicate vases and bowls, elaborate brass and crystal candlesticks, and an amazing array of china and glassware.

For those whose antique interests lie in the field of Americans, the priceless collection of Westward Ho glassware or amber sandwich glass will astonish them because of the unusual pieces contained in the collections.

Perhaps the most rare pieces are the Sevres glass and china in unusual pieces and many of it in complete sets. The large amount of Bohemian ruby glass lends color and an old-world charm as it stands side by side with fragile Dresden plates.

Loving care and knowledge have gone into the acquisition of these priceless and timeless aspects of the graceful living of the past and special interests are reflected in the group of old-fashioned dolls and the many foreign dolls with their accurate costumes; the now-popular collection of sea shells and the dainty array of glass slippers.

Great range of interest is also shown in the paintings, and much care has been taken with their framing.

Many of the articles bear a special and romantic history, such as the fabulously rare Chinese porcelain urn presented to President McKinley by the Chinese ambassador. They bear the special pattern permitted only for use by Chinese royalty.

A series of informal teas are planned for tomorrow and Saturday by Mrs. Florine Peake and her daughter, Miss Marion Peake, owners of the Tiny Shop, in order that the many friends of the shop may view the exceptional collection.

VISIT IN SEATTLE

LEAVES ON VACATION

Miss Junice Benson will leave Saturday for a two weeks' vacation. She will visit Yellowstone Park and other vacation spots with out-of-town friends.

Kiwanis Wives Put On Program

At Tuesday evening's Kiwanis Ladies' Night, the women took over the program and outdid the men in levying fines. Mrs. J. M. Dahl presided in place of Mrs. Ross Trowbridge, who was unable to be present.

In charge of the program was Mrs. William Henley who conducted a quizz program and introduced those contributing to the evening's enjoyment. Featured speaker was Mrs. Ansten Ness of Los Gatos. Mrs. Ness, a member of the executive committee of the coming Los Gatos Pageant, told Kiwanians and their guests about the Pageant, "The Cats", and traced the history of cats from the earliest times. Mrs. Ness also told the legend of the naming of Los Gatos, which is a part of the pageant.

Accompanying Mrs. Ness and her husband were Miss Diane Donovan and Miss Ann Hedges dressed as cats from the pageant.

Miss Lorraine Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wood, played two piano solos, and a trio, composed of Mrs. Eva Grattan, Mrs. Ira Grim and Mrs. C. P. Klassen sang.

Members observed a moment of silence in honor of the memory of Mrs. Mark Purmort, whose death occurred the previous day.

Next Wednesday, Aug. 28, Campbell Kiwanis Club will meet for lunch with the Mountain View Club at Mountain View.

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED

Of interest to her many friends is the recent announcement of the betrothal of Miss Alice Freitas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Freitas, to Willis W. Eggers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eggers of Cedar Bluff, Neb. The news was revealed by the traditional presentation of a box of candy at a dinner meeting of St. Lucy's Guild at Rickey's Studio Club.

Miss Freitas attends the Campbell Union High school where she will resume her studies this fall. The future benedict, now living in Nebraska, was recently released from the Navy.
